SCULLY MATTER GOES TO TRIAL IN U. S. COURT

Chun Chong, Sail to Have Been Robbed of More Than $600.
First Government Witness

After an hour and a half of examination, during which many persons were excused after stating they had formed opinions as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, a jury to try the case of John T. Scully, charged with transporting, concealing and otherwise handling opium, was secured in federal court this morning.

The members of the jury are Frank L. La Moreaux, Marshal H. Webb, Oliver G. Lansing, George B. Henderson, Charles J. Campbell, Fred Turrill, F. W. L. Humphrey, Donald Mac-Intyre, John Rothwell, T. A. Giles, William Cummings and George S. Bromley.

The Honolulu newspapers, politics and social relations came in for a share of publicity during the examination of the jury, especially upon questions put by District Attorney Jeff McCarn. Fred Turrill, member of the G. A. R., talked very freely to the district attorney regarding his reading of the local newspapers.

Attorney C. H. McBride, counsel for the defense, asked Mr. Turrill to what political party he belonged. The jury-man said he was a Democrat.

"Are you acquainted with any of the so-called 'Pauahi street bunch' of Democrats?" asked counsel.

"Slightly," answered Mr. Turrill. "I am what you might call an outcast from all political parties. The 'Pauahi street bunch' probably has no use for me, and neither has Governor Pinkham."

On one occasion the question came up as to whether the reading of newspaper accounts of a case and the possible forming of an opinion from such accounts, disqualify a man to sit as a juror. Attorney McBride held that it did not. Mr. McCarn held that to some extent it did.

McCarn Roasts Newspapers.
Mr. McCarn declared that "there is nothing more infamous than the sheets in this city." He said they throw dust in the eyes of jurors. He said they try cases before they get to the juries.

"If reading newspapers disqualify jurors," retorted McBride, "then all cases would be tried in the newspapers."

Following the selection of the jury no time was lost in bringing the case to trial. The first witness called was Chun Chong, a Chinese merchant, who it is alleged, was robbed of more than $600 in a house in Gulick avenue in which McGrath lived.

Chong said that on February 3 he was approached by Scully and asked if he wanted to buy some tins of stamped opium. Scully wanted $80 a tin for the drug, said the witness. He added that Scully finally reduced the price to $70, whereupon the witness said he then told Scully he would take about ten tins. The witness said that he made an appointment with Scully for 8:30 o'clock at night at River and Kukui streets.

At 8:30 o'clock Scully came to the place in a machine driven by Lewis, said Chong. The witness said he saw two friends and asked them to go along with him. They all got into the machine, he added, and after a roundabout drive arrived at a house in Gulick avenue.

The witness said he did not know who lived in the house. When they got there he and Scully and Lewis got out and went into the house, leaving the other Chinese in the machine, he testified. A few minutes later Lewis came into the room with a basket which he handed to Scully, he continued.

The witness then testified that the basket contained tins of opium, and that some of the tins were leaking.
"He showed me the opium" were the words the witness used.

McBride moved that the words "he showed me the opium" be stricken out of the record on the ground that the witness had not been qualified to tell what was opium. Judge C. F.
Clemons decided to let the statement remain in for the time being.

"Why do you call it opium?" questioned McCarn.

"I know opium when I see it. I smoke it," answered the witness.

"How long have you been smoking opium?"

"About ten years."

"Do you know how it looks when you see it?"

"I know opium when I see it. You can prove it by holding it over a fire and burning it."

Mr. McCarn asked the witness if he burned the substance in the tins on the occasion in question. The Chinese replied that he did.

"When you burned it did you smell the odor?" asked McCarn.

"I did," said the witness.

"From your experience in smoking opium for ten years, do you know the odor of opium smoke when you smell it?"

"I do."

What is Opium?
The district attorney spent some time questioning the witness as to his knowledge of what is and what is not opium. The Chinese said that during the past ten years he has purchased it sometimes every day and sometimes only two or three times a week. He said it depended on whether he had any money.

In outlining the case to the jury, Mc-Carn said that the government would endeavor to prove that the Chinese refused to buy the opium as it did not bear the government stamp, and that finally the Chinese was held up at the point of a pistol and robbed of more than $600 and then, with his friends, was taken to the custom house and left. Bower and McGrath accompanied the Chinese to the custom house, Scully remaining in the house, he said.

The pleas of Kau Leong Chun, charged with first degree murder; Mrs. Lola Jackson, assault and battery with a deadly weapon, and James Kalona, murder in the first degree, have been continued in circuit court until Monday morning at 9 o'clock, at which time hearing on the cases will be had before Judge Ashford.

Juan Rivera, charged with first degree robbery, was too ill to appear in circuit court for arraignment yesterday. He is still in the Queen's hospital suffering from a gunshot wound which he received when he attempted to break into Robert Shingle's home in Makiki. Arraignment and plea has been continued until Monday morning.

That the exposition officials believe that the Hawaii building from point of interest to visitors, ranks first at the big fair, is the statement of H. P.
Wood, Hawaii resident commissioner, in a letter to the Promotion Committee. Mr. Wood says that the existence of this opinion on the part of the officials was learned by him from a representative of Printers Ink, a well known publication.

College graduates of large universities in the East announce their intention from time to time of visiting Honolulu. Last week Yale men, through students from Hawaii, told of a possible trip to the islands this summer.
The latest college party to be planned is at Harvard. The Associated Harvard Clubs meet at the Exposition August 20 to 21, and it is probable that some of the graduates will continue their excursion to include Hawaii.
Raymer Sharp, chief customs examiner, is the only Harvard man in Honolulu who has decided, up to the present, to attend the meeting.

The district attorney added that at the time of the alleged robbery Mc-Grath, Bower and Scully told the Chinese they were customs officers.

The trial has been continued until 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CHINESE GIRL MAY BE 'SLAVE' ON THE COAST

Chun Shee, a young Chinese woman, alleged to have embezzled $800 at San Francisco, and soon to leave for the Coast in custody of Detective Sergeant McGrayan of San Francisco, declares she is the victim of a plot to return her to slavery.

Governor L. E. Pinkham has signed papers presented by the Coast authorities which call for the extradition of the girl, who has been remanded to the city and county prison awaiting transportation to San Francisco.

A cablegram received yesterday by Mrs. Frank Damon, from Miss D. Cameron, at the head of a San Francisco rescue mission, says that Chun Shee is a slave girl who escaped from bondage, in the Pacific Mail liner Siberia. It is urged that the girl receive protection until such time as more particulars are forwarded.

Attorney Andrews, representing the girl's interests, said this morning that Chun Shee would probably be taken back to San Francisco by Detective McGrayan. The extradition papers from California were found in order and nothing remained but to obey the law.

There is a question of doubt here whether the girl is guilty of embezzlement. When arrested by Captain of Detectives McDuffie on the Siberia, Chun Shee had less than $40 in cash and a steerage ticket to Hongkong, China.

She bitterly resents going back to San Francisco, saying that she will be kept in Chinatown and never be allowed to return to China, where she claims to rightfully belong.

An answer to the assumption suit brought against him by Fred Harrison was filed in circuit court today by John D. Holt.
